

Student Survey about Environment Resources and Services in the Library

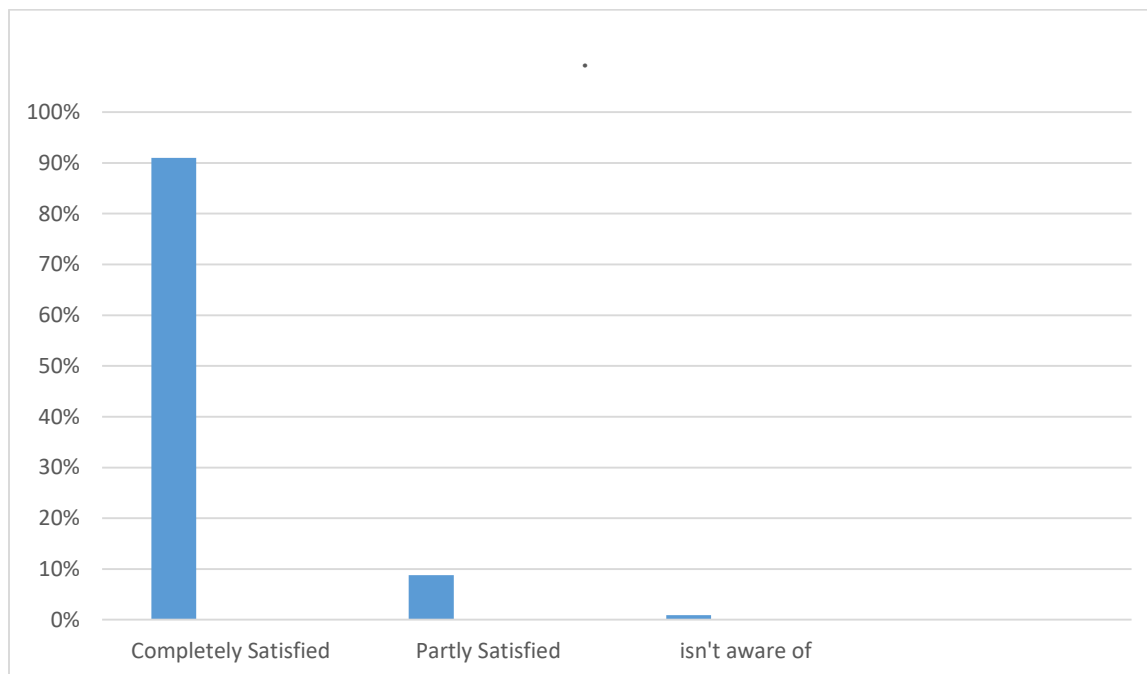

Student Survey on the Environment Resources and Services in the Library was conducted through google forms.

54% of students took part into the survey

Quantitative research method of survey was used for study The reason for selecting quantitative research method was that it was necessary to get statistically reliable information

Target segment of survey was students from all academic program of the Teaching University

Awareness of the rules of using the library

Access to the learning resources / books / Internet Resources

