

Tamara Laliashvili

Bremen, 12th July 2009

Address in Georgia: Achalschenistreet 50/35
0171Tbilissi, Georgia

Address in Germany: Lurmannstraße 13
28209 Bremen(Germany)

E-mail address: tlaliashvili@hotmail.com

Curriculum vitae

Born on 10th June 1963 in Sioni, Georgia

Marital status: single

Professional experience

| | |
|---------------------------|---|
| 1988 | Bar exam at the Faculty of Law of the State University of Tbilisi, Georgia |
| 1989 – 1992 | Articled Clark at the Rayon Court Issani, Tbilisi |
| 1992 – 1993 | At the Ministry of Justice, Citizenship department, preparing the draft law on citizenship |
| 1993 – 1999 | Prosecutor at the General Prosecutor's Office |
| 1997 – 1998 | Scholarship of the Friedrich-Ebert Foundation for an internship with the Prosecutor's Office and the Court of Appeal in Bremen |
| 1999- 2000 | Judge at the Rayon Court Krzanissi-Mtazminda, Tbilisi |
| October/November 2000 | Scholarship of the Max-Planck Institute for Foreign and International Criminal Law, Freiburg (Breisgau/Germany) |
| 2000- 2001 | Presiding Judge at the Regional Court, Tbilisi, Georgia Presiding Judge at the Criminal Law Chamber of the court of Appeal |
| April 2001- November 2006 | Judge at the Criminal Law Senate of the Supreme Court of Georgia |
| Since 2001 | Lecturer at the Institute of Law of the Academy of Sciences of Georgia, special attribution: criminal law and criminal procedure in the countries of the former Soviet Union |
| 2001 – 2002 | Member of the Expert group of the Government committee on reforming the Prosecution Office and the Security Services. In this context a draft reform of the Georgian Criminal Procedure was established in cooperation with experts from Germany, USA, United Kingdom, and the Netherlands. |

| | |
|--------------------------|---|
| September/October 2003 | Research visit to Freiburg (Breisgau/Germany) invited by the Max-Planck Association |
| Summer 2005 | Political School of Georgia, organized and funded by the EU and Council of Europe (CoE), Diploma handed over by Mr. Terry DAVIS |
| November/December 2006 | Research visit to Freiburg (Breisgau/Germany) invited by the Max-Planck Association |
| January 2006 -2010 | Research at the University of Bremen on “A Comparison of Plea bargaining procedures under German, US American and Georgian Criminal Law Procedures”; the monograph established under this project has been accepted as thesis for a law doctorate |
| Since 2010 | Professor of law at the Robakidze University, |
| Juni September 2011/2012 | Research visit to Freiburg (Breisgau/Germany), invited by DAAD-Scholarship |
| Juni September 2013/2014 | Research visit to University to Colomne/Germany invited by KAAD-Scholarship |
| Juni September 2016 | Research visit to University to Bremen /Germany invited by DAAD-Scholarship |
| Juni Dezember 2017 | Research visit to Ohio state University USA invited by Fulbright- Scholarship |
| Languages: | German, Russian, English, Georgian (mother tongue) |
| Hobbies: | Opera, theatre, fine arts |